LUXURY PERFORMANCE FABRICS

Perennials[®] fights fabric woes with The Usual Suspects collection

Debuting sophisticated performance fabrics with the look and feel of silks, velvets, linens and chenilles.

DALLAS, August 15, 2016 – Perennials[®] Luxury Performance Fabrics, the preferred choice of leading designers, is on the case with its newest collection, The Usual Suspects. With the power of 100% solution-dyed acrylic, Perennials introduces 8 qualities that won't fall victim to the pitfalls of sun, moisture and dirt. The collection, which is suitable for use indoors or out and incredibly soft-to-the-touch, also debuts 5 new colorways, including the luxurious Emerald, a green suitable for royalty but livable for the masses. In all, The Usual Suspects debuts 75 new luxury performance fabrics with the look and feel of linens, silks, taffetas and chenilles.

The sophisticated Snazzy, iridescent in nature with the look of a tussah silk, is a creative accomplishment ideal for drapery and lightweight upholstery, available in eleven colorways including the rich and elegant Emerald. Slightly smaller in striation, Silky emulates a dupioni silk taffeta in an array of 12 colorways.

Two patterns, Blurred Out and Looking Glass, add rich textural designs to the collection. Looking Glass combines the appeal of an aged wood block print with the longevity of a woven. It is available in six colorways including Rhino, a gorgeous steel gray. Blurred Out is also available in six colorways and is an organic, aged pattern that will complement any project.

Sheen Queen is a lustrous solid with the look and feel of wool sateen, available in 7 colorways, including neutral favorites Grey Matter, Linen and Nickel. The cozy Maze Craze displays a subtle patterning and combines the comfortable qualities of chenille with the durability Perennials is known for, making it perfect for upholstery indoors or out.

Rough Outline and Tick Tock Stripe combine the look of timeless stripes with modern linen-like textures. Rough Outline adds an elegant stripe to one of Perennials' most popular textures, Rough n' Rowdy. Tick Tock Stripe is a classic ticking stripe that is ideal for drapery and upholstery and is available in nine colorways.

This collection features Perennials' Nano Seal™ finish for extra protection against the elements. More than just a coating, Perennials Nano Seal™ is molecularly bonded with the fibers providing long-lasting protection even after repeated washings.
